WRITING (35 minutes)

Your teacher has asked you to write an article for a school webzine.

The article must be entitled “A charity event to remember”. Write an article in 130-150 words of your own in an appropriate style.

Remember to cover the following points:

- What is the most unusual way one can raise money for charity?
- How can you do it?
- Involve the reader, use at least two of these phrases

Just imagine...

Have you ever...?

How would you feel if...?

Are you one of those people who ...?

If the answer is ..., you should....

What would life be like if...

- Use at least two of these adverbs

absolutely approximately importantly mainly surprisingly

worryingly

- Finish your article with a question “Would I be keen to help again next year?” Yes/ No, explain why.

Note! The words of the title do not count.

A charity event to remember

One of my favourite things to do in my free time is to help charities. I've helped different charities and have done many other things like taking dogs for a walk, helping children in hospitals and etc.

I always encourage people to take part in charity events.

Have you ever taken part in such events?

If no I can name four reasons approximately for you to start experience, meet new people, gain confidence and it is of course fun.

Speaking about some particular charity events I enjoyed reading about "Red nose day in the UK" when people mainly raise money for homeless and sick children. Another event is "Movember". The word ~~consider~~ consists of two words moustaches and November. How would you feel if you grow moustaches for a month. Just imagine, men do it and surprisingly they raise money

Would I be keen to help again next year? Yes, I would. Because It's a good opportunity to speak about global problems in our life, because it's not ideal and everyone should know about it
