WRITING

A charity event to remember Have you ever thought of the problem of extinct animals?

However, the problem is absolutely urgent. Since the time people started to produce gas, petrol, plastic and chemicals the amount of dying species has increased from 2 to 100 a year. The more human manufactures, the more kinds of wild animals become endangered. However, we can not close all the factories and enterprises as modern society is not able to live without goods made by different giant companies. But there is another way to try to solve the issue.

Just imagine, each of us has an opportunity to participate in a festival and help the animals. The festival includes free concerts, parades, contests, and a fair raising money for charity.

We hope to raise approximately one million dollars. We are waiting for you in New-York national park on April, 1.
